Basic Rules & Awards List

Basic Rules

For full details see Autosport Championship Articles

- Only financial members of the club at the time of the running of an event are eligible for points towards the club championship from that event
- All drivers who complete documentation at an event but fail to finish are eligible for 1 championship point in the overall championship and the eligible class for that event.
- Organiser points:
 - To reward and encourage members to organize events, organiser points are awarded to the leading organiser(s) of each event except rallies where there is a vast number of people involved. Exactly who is(are) the organiser(s) of each event is determined by majority of the club committee.
 - Points awarded to each organiser is half of the maximum driver points for that event i.e. 30 points for Rally, 20 points for Sprint and 15 points for Autocross. Should there be more than one organiser of one event the organiser points are divided evenly among them, rounding to the nearest whole point. These points only contribute to the Overall Club Championship i.e. not for Club Championship Classes.
- Sprint Series only best 4 Sprints count towards results

FAQ

- Do I get points if I DNF or DNS?
Yes, you get 1 point if you complete documentation.
- Do I have to be entered as an Autosport member on the entry form to get club points?
Yes, as points are allocated based on the information provided on the entry form.
- For any event if I finish in the top 3 places overall do I still get class points?
Yes e.g. If you win overall you still get maximum class points.
